GOOD GAME

Was Played by Marietta Boys, But Oberlin Won.

For the second time this season Marietta has suffered defeat, and the aggravating thing about the whole matter is that the victory was lost by unlucky fumbles. Even supposing she could not have won the game, had she made no fumbles she could at least have scored, and if not winning a victory, she could have avoided a shutout. Altogether, with two of the hardest games lost and two of the easiest won, Marietta has not made a good start for a record for the Muskingum games were easy and not so much credit can be given as would have been her due had she won from an antagonist as strong as herself.

Oberlin is the old time adversary which Marietta has met repeatedly on the field, and in most cases has been defeated by the "College by the Lake."

The game Saturday, like several of Marietta's games last year, was lost by unlucky fumbles, and these happened at a time when a goal had almost been reached. The line and the backs do not seem to work harmoniously together this year. It was noticed at the game on the home ground that they were slow in starting and did not follow their interference closely enough. Marietta's line holds up very well this year, in fact, it is almost invincible. On defensive and offensive plays Marietta showed up splendidly and but for the unfortunate flukes would have undoubtedly won the game. The defeat should and will not be taken as a discouragement, but only as an incentive to harder work and a determination to best Morgantown in the game here.

The following account of the game was received by the Leader from Captain Brokaw:

Special to the Leader.
Cleveland, O., Oct. 20.—The game of foot ball played at Oberlin today resulted as follows: Oberlin, 12; Marietta, 0. Oberlin scored on the first kick-off and around right end. Marietta fumbled the ball three times inside of Oberlin's ten-yard line, once being within a foot of the goal. Marietta tore great holes in Oberlin's line.
Our defense was splendid, but the backs were slow. It was a clean game and nobody was hurt. We failed at goal from the field. BROKAW.
